Dear Sir/ Madam,

This has reference to the cited subject.

We wish to inform you that the National Payments Corporation of India vide Circular No. 200 dated December 5, 2016 has decided that the penalty of Rs. 25/- per transaction presented with old account number of all account based transactions will be implemented with effect from January 01, 2017.

The rules for calculation of penalty is as follows

1. Transactions returned for reason "No Such Account"
2. Account Numbers with length less than or equal to 9 digits for all banks
3. Account number length less than or equal to 8 digits for Indian bank

Accordingly it is requested that physical bondholders/ investors may send self attested Pan copy & Cancelled Cheque for updating the bank details at the above mentioned address.

In case holding is in electronic/ demat form, the bondholders / investors are requested to approach their Depository Participant (DP) to update the Bank Details for electronic credit of interest / redemption proceeds

It is requested to update the details at the earliest for smooth flow of interest credit in your account for future payments.

As the above referred penalty shall be levied by NPCI w.e.f. 01.01.2017, all concerned are advised to take necessary action for updation of their Bank Accounts on immediate basis.

It may please be noted that the issuer company (i.e. HUDCO) shall not bear any responsibility in the event of the penalty being levied by NPCI owing to non updation of Bank details by the investors and / or incorrect Bank details of investors.

Note : If the bank mandate is not updated in your account and the payment is rejected by the bank as NACH for the above reason at the time of interest payment/redemption payment, the penalty of Rs .25/- shall be deducted from the interest payments / redemption payment.
